

2007 BOSTON BRUINS ICE HOCKEY SPORTSMANSHIP AWARD WINNERS

For five years, the MIAA and Boston Bruins have partnered to honor one worthy student-athlete from every boys and girls ice hockey league in the state. These student-athletes were selected by representatives from their league for best exemplifying a commitment to the ideals of sportsmanship throughout the season by meeting the following criteria:

- An exemplary record of complying, both in spirit and letter, with all league and MIAA rules and regulations during the season.
- A demonstrated record of respectfully accepting the rulings of game officials during the season.
- A record of conduct, on and off the ice that brings honor to self, team, school, and community.
- An exhibited commitment to teamwork by providing all members with recognition of their talents, an opportunity to contribute them to the team, and a spirit of camaraderie.
- A demonstrated respect for opponents before, during, and after games.

The recipients of the 2007 Boston Bruins Ice Hockey Sportsmanship Awards are listed below. These student-athletes will be honored on Thursday, March 8 at the TD BankNorth Boston Garden during the second intermission of the Boston Bruins game against the Minnesota Wild.
