Who should attend?

Educators, school administrators, wellness coordinators, athletic directors, health educators, activity group leaders, coaches, and anyone interested in becoming an advisor, or veteran advisors looking to take their group “to the next level”.

Workshop Presenters

Jane Biagi, Reach Out Inc.

Bob Hackenson, Dynamic Influence

Tom Hermanowski, ADAPT

Bill Sullivan, Retired Advisor

Karen Nardone, MIAA

10 PDP'S are available for individuals who attend this workshop and complete an action plan for their activity group, team, or school.

Workshop Description

So you have volunteered (or been volunteered) to lead an extra-curricular group of students. You are a veteran advisor looking for new ideas, support or training opportunities. This workshop is for you!

Welcome to the complete menu of advising from “soup to nuts!” This hands-on workshop is designed to give something to everyone; the novice, the veteran, and the administrator!

Breakout sessions, networking and sharing opportunities, and action planning activities are tailored to meet the needs of the participants. Best practices and model programs are show-cased.

The YOU LEAD Program, an MIAA Student Services initiative to support substance-free youth, will be featured.

Workshop Topics

- The role of the Advisor
- Motivation, leadership, and communication
- Rules/consequences and the inevitable chemical health violations
- Supporting the non-using student
- Recruitment, membership, and team building, planning FUN activities and projects, fundraising
- Problem solving, breaking down barriers
