

Four-Year Alignment Process for 2009-10 thru 2012-13

Fall Sports:

- During the Spring of 2008 each Fall sport committee develops alignment modification to become effective in the Fall of 2009.
- The alignments are released in late Summer of 2008
- Schools and leagues are given the fall (e.g. including District Workshops) of 2008 to review and discuss these divisional alignments.
- Appeals by the high school principal or league president must be filed before December 21, 2008
- Appeals by each sport committee will be heard during the Winter of 2008-09
- Final Fall Alignments for 2009-10, 2010-11, 2011-12, and 2012-13 will be released during the Spring of 2009.

Winter Sports:

- During the Spring of 2008 each Winter sport committee develops alignment modification to become effective in the Winter of 2009-10.
- The alignments are released in late Summer of 2008
- Schools and leagues are given the fall (e.g. including District Workshops) of 2008 to review and discuss these divisional alignments.
- Appeals by the high school principal or league president must be filed before December 21, 2008
- Appeals by each sport committee will be heard during the Winter of 2008-09
- Final Winter Alignments for 2009-10, 2010-11, 2011-12, and 2012-13 will be released late Spring of 2009.

Spring Sports:

- During the Summer-Fall of 2008 each Spring sport committee develops alignment modification to become effective in the Spring of 2010.
- The alignments are released in late Winter of 2008-09
- Schools and leagues are given the Spring of 2009 to review and discuss these divisional alignments.
- Appeals by the high school principal or league president must be filed before June 21, 2009
- Appeals by each sport committee will be heard by November 1, 2009
- Final Spring Alignments for 2010, 2011, 2012, and 2013 will be released during the Winter of 2009-10.