

GILLETTE STADIUM TO HOST SIX MIAA SUPER BOWLS ON DECEMBER 1

The Kraft family will again provide New England's best football venue for Super Saturday

FOXBOROUGH, Mass. – Super Saturday returns to Foxborough December 1 when Gillette Stadium hosts six of the Massachusetts Interscholastic Athletic Association (MIAA) Super Bowls in a single day.

Twelve teams will compete for their division's Super Bowl title on New England's most famous football field. Three Eastern Mass. divisions, one Central Mass. division and one Western Mass. division will crown their champions at Gillette Stadium. They will be joined by thousands of cheering fans, cheerleaders, school bands and special guests.

The Kraft family has donated use of Gillette Stadium for the Super Bowls for the last six years, and will treat the participants and their fans to an NFL-caliber game presentation, with music and replays on the stadium's high-definition video boards. Kraft Sports Productions will produce a live television broadcast of all six games.

Admission to the Gillette Stadium/MIAA Tournament experience is just $15 for adults and $12 for students. The fee includes parking, admission to all six games, and a game day discount of $3 at The Hall at Patriot Place presented by Raytheon.
