Students who aspire to take on the responsibility of leadership within their teams, school and community need formal training in order to make their leadership roles both meaningful and effective. This workshop will provide an in-person forum, where students will receive a customized and intensive training that introduces and reinforces basic leadership and life skills.

Topics Include:

- Defining Leadership
- Courage and Collaboration
- Why I Can

This workshop will include presentation, breakout groups and questions and answers. Continental breakfast and a box lunch will be provided for attendees.

Deb and Trevor Hult are motivated and committed to enhancing the lives of students and staff through the concept of relational leadership. Students enhance their opportunity for success through the power of positive relationships, sound character and confident displays of leadership. They believe that intentional leadership and relationships are the focal point of the leadership process and building relationships opens the path for influence!
