

MIAA Sportsmanship Expectations

The guidelines below were created by the MIAA Sportsmanship Committee for spectators attending state tournament events. Member schools are encouraged to follow these guidelines during the regular season.

Spectator Behavior:

- Lead By Example: Hold yourself and others to high standards of sportsmanship. Support the competition and everyone involved by being positive.
 - Respect All Participants: Negative comments directed at individual participants, coaches, officials and other spectators that include names, numbers or other personal characteristics and information are prohibited.
 - Do Not Storm the Court/Field: For everyone's safety, spectators must remain off the playing surface at the conclusion of games, including during post-game handshake ceremonies and trophy presentations.
 - Stay in Designated Spectator Areas: Spectators must remain within their school's student body section. Do not leave your designated area and go to the opposing team's side of play/court.
 - Be A Courteous Spectator: Actions beyond the normal nature of the game that intentionally interfere with the competition or obstruct the view of other spectators are prohibited.
 - Dress Code: Shirts and shoes are required attire at all facilities.

Permitted Items

- Spirit Items: Pom-poms, shakers, and spirit/rally towels are allowed.
- Face Paint & Hair Coloring: Spectators may paint their face or color their hair to show school spirit. However, all painting and coloring must be done before entering the facility.
- School Mascots/Costumes: Dressed school mascots must remain within their school's student body section.
- Carried School Flags: School flags are permitted within the school's student body section, but taunting with them is prohibited.
- Team Introductions: Team run-throughs or breakaway banners are permitted for team personnel and sideline cheerleaders only.

Prohibited Items*

The following items are not permitted at any MIAA tournament site.

- Confetti/Shredded Paper/Silly String
- Laser Lights/Pointers/Flashing Objects
- Megaphones
- Artificial Noisemakers: Including but not limited to whistles, horns, cowbells (indoors), thunder sticks, rattles, air horns, sirens, vuvuzelas and musical instruments that are not part of a band.
- Objects Thrown into the Crowd: Such as confetti, miniature sports balls, candy, etc.
- Cannons/Muskets/Guns/Fireworks
- Live Animal Mascots

*In addition, the site manager reserves the right to remove any item not listed in this “Prohibited Items” section.

Items Allowed at Site Director's Discretion

The following items/activities may be permitted with approval from the Site Director:

- Hand-Held Signs: As long as they do not obstruct the view of others, distract participants or include language and/or references that are not school appropriate.
 - Prerecorded Music: If approved by the Site Administration may be played during pre-contest warm-ups provided that the lyrics are school appropriate and a high school band is not available to play during that time.
 - Pep Bands: Permission must be granted in advance by the Tournament Director.
 - An advisor must be in attendance and sit with the band.
 - Not permitted to play while the game is in play.

PLEASE NOTE: Spectators who violate any of the above policies and expectations are subject to removal from the contest by the Site Director or MIAA Tournament Personnel.
